Lantzville Fire Rescue Presents: The Annual Santa Day Parade

The Lantzville Fire Rescue team has once again managed to secure an evening with one of the most popular figures over the holidays: Santa!

Watch for him on the fire truck parade, which leaves the Lantzville Fire Hall at 4:30pm on Saturday, December 7th.

Join them at Huddlestone Park at 7:00pm and enjoy hot chocolate, a visit with Santa, and the lighting of the Holiday Tree. Download the electronic copy or visit Lantzville Fire Rescue's Facebook page for route details.

If you haven't already signed up for the electronic version of the Community Update, now is your chance! Beginning in 2025, the paper edition of the Community Update will be phased out as the District of Lantzville attempts to save tax payer money and reduce waste.

The electronic version will have all of the same content as the paper copy but will be more user friendly with attached hyperlinks to help direct you to websites and email contacts. Visit www.lantzville.ca/cms.asp?wpID=462 and complete the form to sign up.

RDN Releases 2025 Curbside Collection Calendar

The Regional District of Nanaimo has released the 2025 Curbside Collection Calendar. Also, the Regional District of Nanaimo is taking the next step towards achieving 90% waste diversion from the landfill: A Mandatory Waste Source Separation bylaw is coming into effect January 2025. This means that if you live, work or have a business in Lantzville, you will be required to separate out recyclables and organics from your garbage.

Visit getinvolved.rdn.ca for more information.

Did you know? The legend of Sinterklass (Santa Claus) originates from a 4th century monk from Myra (now Türkiye) named St. Nicholas who was known for his piety, kindness and generosity. Some stories depict St. Nicholas as having inherited great wealth which he in turn distributed to the poor and the sick.
